RE: Food Stamp Program Manual Transmittal 47

The purpose of this transmittal is to provide updates to the Civil Rights policy and SNAP forms in response to the Civil Rights LEP compliance review and ADA requirements. This transmittal also includes updates to the transitional food stamp policy and guidelines for restoring household benefits when applications have been severely delayed because of the agency's failure to process applications timely.

The policy revisions are contained in the following FS policy sections:

- Section 3030, Civil Rights – This section is updated to give reference to the updated customer complaint procedures and contacts for discrimination and LEP/SI complaints in response to the Civil Rights LEP compliance review.
- Section 3105, Application Processing – The section is updated to provide the guidelines on authorizing benefits retroactive to 12 months for severely delayed applications.
- Section 3704, Transitional Food Stamps – This section is updated to provide clarification on the transitional food stamps eligibility requirements.
- Section 3710, Reviews – This section is updated to provide the policy on authorizing benefits retroactive to 12 months for severely delayed renewals.
- Section 3810, Issuance – This section is updated to provide clarification on replacement benefits for food destroyed in a disaster.
