Nondiscrimination Statement

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/US-DA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (833) 620-1071, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to:

1. mail:
Food and Nutrition Service, USDA
1320 Braddock Place, Room 334
Alexandria, VA 22314; or
2. fax:
(833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or
3. email:

Nutrition Assistance Program

Putting Healthy Food Within Reach

What is Senior SNAP?

Senior SNAP is a simplified application for food stamp benefits that is designed for easier use by seniors.

How does it work?

Once your application is submitted, you will be contacted for a required interview.

If your application is approved, SNAP benefits will go into a special account and an electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card will be issued to you to purchase groceries. Each month, your benefits will be loaded to your EBT card. EBT cards work just like bank debit cards at the grocery store.

Who is eligible for Senior SNAP?

You may qualify to receive Senior SNAP if:

- All members of your household are 60 years of age or older and purchase and prepare your own food together

AND

- The members of your household are not working

AND

- Your household income falls below the limits to be eligible for SNAP participation

AND

- Your household has a permanent fixed income such as social security; SSI; private, state or federal retirement; VA or railroad retirement.

How do I apply?

You can apply at any local DFCS Office

OR

You can call 877-423-4746 to have an application mailed to you.

Completed applications should be mailed to:
